

The Interior Journal.

STANFORD, KY.,

Friday Morning, June 8, 1877.

W. P. WALTON, Editor.

Treasurer Tate Endorsed.

An impromptu meeting of the Democracy of Lincoln county was held at the Court-house on Monday, June 4th, and was called to order by Hon. Thos. W. Varnon, who in a few appropriate remarks, explained that the object of the meeting was to take into consideration the re-nomination of Jas. W. Tate, present Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Kentucky; and on his motion, Wm. Lucas, Esq., was elected Chairman, and W. P. Walton, Secretary.

It was moved by R. C. Warren, Esq., that a Committee from each District be appointed to draft suitable resolutions in regard to the matter, but Col. Varnon suggested that it was useless to take up the time of the Convention with that formality, and presented the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That as Hon. Jas. W. Tate has filled in a most acceptable and efficient manner the office of Treasurer of the State of Kentucky, we heartily endorse him as honest and capable gentleman and officer, and earnestly recommend him for re-election as Treasurer, without the formality of a State Convention.

No further business appearing, the meeting, on motion, adjourned.

WM. LUCAS, Chm.,

W. P. WALTON, Secy.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer is the most readable and most enterprising paper in the West. Last Sunday in its mammoth sixty-four column edition it had three entire columns of cable news besides special dispatches from all parts of the United States. It is the New York Herald of the West, and at its present rate of progress bids fair to eclipse even that wonderful journal.

JOHN CHARLES THOMPSON, formerly editor of the Observer and Reporter, is now the regular nominee of the Democratic party for the Legislature in Mercer, that honor having been conferred by the various precinct delegates, who met in Convention at Harrodsburg last Monday. Bull for John Charles. We hope he will be elected by a routing majority.

A TERRIBLE tornado passed over Mount Carmel, Illinois, Monday evening. A number of houses, among them the Court-house, were blown down, causing the death of 22 persons, and the serious wounding of some fifty or sixty others. The polar wave reached here Tuesday night.

E. H. Taylor, Jr., at one time Mayor of Frankfort, and up till a few days since, a large whiskey dealer, has disappeared, caused, it is supposed, by financial embarrassment. His liabilities are $500,000, with assets of about $300,000.

THERE is a considerable hitch in the leasing of the Cincinnati Southern Railroad, as several prominent lawyers have declared that the terms of the lease about to be made by the Trustees are unconstitutional.

Nothing of importance from the seat of war. Much talk and no fight.

Sunday School Association.

The Annual meeting of the Kentucky Christian Sunday School Association will be held in the First Christian Church, corner 4th and Walnut Streets, in the City of Louisville, beginning the 19th day of June and will continue three days. A cordial invitation to all Sunday School workers is extended. Visitors will immediately upon their arrival in the city, proceed to the Church where places of entertainment will be assigned them. B. B. TYLER, Pastor 1st Christian Church, Louisville, Kentucky.

From Rev. Wm. Crow.

Some weeks since the INTERIOR kindly noted the fact that two or three of its friends had been sent as delegates to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, which met in New Orleans, on the 17th ult. We desire to say in regard to that journey, that it was an exceedingly pleasant duty as had to perform. A visit to the South in May, and under circumstances which render it necessary to form many new acquaintances and meet many old friends, would certainly be a pleasant thing. We were there two weeks, very happily located with good, kind friends, who did all in their power to make our sojourn pleasant, and most assuredly, they succeeded.

It was about the middle of May when we left home, and a very backward season, there having been frost for several nights immediately preceding the day upon which we started. After a Railroad ride of 36 hours, we were, at the end of our journey in the city of New Orleans, apparently in mid-summer, overwhelmed with a profusion of vegetables, fruits and flowers. After looking on this scene for a day, taking in the situation, and reflecting back on home gardens and flower pots, we settled down to a feeling of utter contempt for our feeble efforts in flower and vegetable raising. The sweet potatoes were larger and finer in May, than we can have them in August, with every thing else in proportion.

In the matter of business, this is the hottest season of the year in New Orleans, but the citizens say it is a great deal more active than it would have been under the Federal government. But the political sky was too late clearing for this year's business. Although in a better condition than for years past, it still has the appearance of a languishing city, only hopeful of a better day. How a people could exist with any degree of prosperity under such a government as they have had for ten years past, cannot cease to be a wonder. It is a sad state of affairs to the unimpaired vision.

of the soil and climate of that region of our great country. Let New York or Boston try on the same kind of rule for ten years, and desolation and ruin would be written of them.

We met a goodly number of Kentuckians, who have taken up their abode in the South, all happy and hopeful as to their future. All the professions, the Ministry, Law and Medicine, claim some of our native brethren in New Orleans.

Mrs. John U. Rochester, a former resident of Danville, now of New Orleans, a finished artist, and most estimable lady, will visit Stanford and Danville this Summer. If any of your friends should wish to have a portrait painted, they would do well to give her a call.

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY NEWS.

Mr. Vernon.

June 6th, 1877.

K. K. K. Gentle Summer has come.

The wind blew boisterously last night.

What a smashing-up was there, my countrymen!

The debating society has gone where disputes are forever ended.

We were glad to see our handsome friend, Joe Brooks, of Richmond, in town yesterday.

Great is eating big dinners in England. This fact causes no diminution in the supply of strawberries and Spring chickens in this country.

A good rain fell yesterday, and we trust its opportune arrival will put an end to the dismal forebodings we have heard indulged in, regarding the potato crop.

Elder Stephen Collier will begin a protracted meeting at this place, next Saturday night. The meeting will continue for a week or more, and an interesting time is anticipated.

THE PRIZE.—A Worcester's Comprehensive Dictionary offered by Dr. Brown for the best speller in Mr. Whitehead's school was awarded to Miss Mollie Horton. There were several contestants for it.

Miss Jael Redd will accept our thanks for a very tastefully arranged bouquet which she was kind enough to send us a few evenings since. The flowers comprising it, like their sender, were remarkable for their beauty, purity and loveliness.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to be present at a "Lawn Party" to be given by the Collegiate Department, on the grounds of Franklin Institute, in Lancaster, on the night of Thursday, June 7th, and regret that circumstances will prevent our attendance, as it will doubtless be quite an enjoyable affair.

We attended the closing exercises at the Academy, last week, and were much profited thereby. The examination of the classes was thorough and satisfactory. The proficiency displayed by the pupils commencing the advanced Grammar class, spoke well for the care and industry of their painstaking instructor, Mr. Whitehead.

Miss Dora Spilman, who has been for some months connected with the Academy here, as Music teacher, returned to her home at Bryantville, last Saturday. Much regret was felt and expressed at Miss Spilman's departure. She is an intelligent, accomplished young lady, a successful teacher, and her gentleness, modesty and friendly disposition won for her a lasting place in the hearts of her pupils — and others.

The June Term of the Common Pleas Court began yesterday morning. His Honor, Judge Breckinridge, who, by the way, we are happy to remark, is looking extremely well, and is apparently enjoying good health, was promptly at his place on the Bench, where he presides with equal dignity and grace. He puts through business with dispatch, and when he calls his docket for the trial of cases, they "just must" be tried, you know, however much litigants and lawyers may protest against this summary mode of proceeding. His rulings are very prompt and decisive. Several cases were disposed of, and, taking his progress yesterday as an example, we would say that about Friday will suffice to put the finishing touches to the docket. The visiting lawyers whom we noticed in the bar yesterday were: Col. T. Z. Morrow, of Somerset; W. O. Bradley, of Lancaster; B. F. Holmes and Capt. L. A. Byron, of Manchester; F. B. McClary, of Barbourville, and Judge Pearl, of London.

Last Wednesday night about the "see-ums" house, a party of persons, supposed to have been robed in sombre-looking vestments "with black crapes over their faces," made a descent upon a house in the East End of town occupied by a frail white woman and two robust nigger men. With blood-curdling yells, a volley of rocks, and a deafening roar of pistol shots, they began the attack, and in pretty much the same way they kept it up. After a few moments' work of devastation, they retired, and the next morning a piece of a house, with doors smashed into smithereens, the floors covered with shattered glass and utterly demolished window frames; a pile of feathers, an empty bed-tick and some bed-clothes lying on the floor, told but too well how successfully the midnight destroyers had accomplished their design.

We understand that the occupants of the building vacated it early in the action, and made somewhat remotely-connected tracks for till timber. On the same night, we learn that another house in the vicinity of Broadhead, was visited, and two women who occupied it were severely whipped. These are the first cases of Ku Kluxing that have occurred in this county for some years.

Died, on the 30th day of May, 1877, at the residence of his father, near Mitchellville, Boyle county, Ky., John T. Caldwell. He was born on the 9th day of February, 1847, and was consequently, in his 32nd year at the time of his decease. His whole life had, as we believe, been passed in the immediate vicinity of his birthplace, and his many course, generous disposition, and cheerful nature, made him universally beloved and respected. We knew him long and intimately, and took delight in admiring him for his many noble traits of character. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity, and was also connected with the Presbyterian Church. When we last saw John, about one year ago, he was in vigorous health. He was possessed of a decided manly beauty, a noble bearing, and a splendid person. He was a young man of much promise, and gave evidence of a long and useful life, but given Death, who laid his chilling, withering hand upon him, and to-night, while we write these words, all that is mortal of John T. Caldwell lies sleeping in the tomb. His remains rest in the Cemetery at Perryville, where they were interred with Masonic rites, in the presence of a vast concourse of relatives and friends on Friday, June 1st. His sudden demise will create an aching void in the hearts of his aged parents, will sadden with a bitter grief his affectionate sisters. To them all, we offer our earnest, tender sympathy. As for thee, John, may the earth rest lightly upon thee.

LANCASTER COUNTY NEWS.

Lancaster.

June 6, 1877.

Farmers and florists are looking happy because of refreshing showers. Party-givers and pleasure-seekers are proportionately melancholy.

The Strawberry Feast given by the Lancaster Cornet Band, was generally attended by the young people, but the substantial support of the married citizens was both needed and missed. The Hall presented a neat, inviting interior, while the background of the stage set forth tempting viands to regale the promenaders by-and-by. A series of inspiring melodies filled up the intervals. After the more quiet portion of the assembly had retired to their homes, the Jim Crow Band inspired the lingers with feelings and aspirations of a more lively nature, and twelve o'clock struck before the dancers forsook the shining boards. There were several strangers present, among whom was Mr. J. G. Finley, of Chicago.

Two public attractions claimed attention on Friday afternoon: the Base Ball game and the Julepuss Society. At 3 o'clock a gay-looking omnibus drawn by three powerful horses, and crowded with young gentlemen, entered the village from Danville street, causing no little excitement among the youths who were on the pier for the match game. After donning their gymnasium suits, the visiting club proceeded to the ground, and the game began at four, with a number of spectators present. At first the score ran evenly, but a skillful manipulation of the ball on the part of Danville, gave them an advantage during the third and fourth innings, which they held throughout, and Lancaster's mixed Nine were left in the lurch. A bouquet of rare flowers was presented to Mr. Peter Marks, of Danville, as the best player. Mr. Basil Guest, of the club, being only one score behind him. Much of the playing on both sides was excellent. At 7 o'clock the victorious Nine were entertained by Mr. Woodford Dunlap, and departed soon thereafter for Richmond, where they gained another victory on Saturday.

At the Hon. Wm. Berkeley's, of Bryantville, a rare and beautiful feast was spread for the Julepuss. A full report of the proceedings of this august body cannot be given in our allotted space. In the absence of the Grand Sockdolager, who put in a late appearance, Mr. James A. Anderson was called to fill the vacancy pro tem. In obedience to appointment by the Sockdolager, and confirmation by the Grand Lavger, the Hon. G. W. Dunlap delivered an address of welcome, which was said to surpass even his usual happy style. The Hon. W. O. Bradley was Orator of the day, and acquitted himself with great brilliancy. Letters were read from Don Pedro, of Brazil; Captain E. M. Coates, of the U. S. A.; the Mikado of Japan, and others. Bacchus was on duty with sparkling champagne and a variety of beverages, which flowed most generously amid toasts and bumpers. The Hon. Mat. Walton was an invited guest, and contributed his share to the eloquent oratorical tribute of the hour. When all was over, and the mystic rites performed in the company of Sockdolagers, Lavgers, Orators, Wise Men, Sapsuckers and Knockemstiffs returned to their various places of abode, with no farther evidence of unusual hilarity than a brilliant sparkle of the eye. Each bore a generous package of cake, &c.; at the solicitation of their hospitable host and hostess.

MARRIED.—On Thursday morning, Miss Ann B. Haysen to Col. John Henderson, both of this county. Another is going to be—but we "promised not to tell!" Mr. James Hemphill has returned home from a Commercial College at Louisville.

The special equity term of the Common Pleas Court continued four days last week, and was reported interesting. In the case of Mrs. Susan Anderson vs. Cyrus Doty, the plaintiff recovered docket. In the case of the same against M. H. Gill et al., she was defeated. In the suit of Woods, &c. vs. McKernack, the plaintiffs were unsuccessful. All of the cases decided during the session will be taken to the Court of Appeals.

Pleading engagements prevent our making a more thorough search in item hunting this week.

HADISON COUNTY NEWS.

Kirkville.

June 5th, 1877.

We had a good rain to-day, which was greatly needed. Yesterday a heavy hail storm passed over the Northern and middle portions of the county. The rain was unusually large and did considerable damage, especially to the fruit crop, a great deal of which was knocked off and the remainder bruised so as to injure it.

Green peas, beets, strawberries and ice-cream, are common delicacies at present.

Our Court of Claims was in session last week. The appropriations were so numerous and large that the Poll Tax of the county to the extent of the law will be levied, also one-tenth of one per cent ad valorem tax will be required.

Yesterday was regular County Court day in Richmond. The attendance was unusually small. The stock on the market, however brought fair prices. We learn that medium Tennessee sheep brought 4 to 4 1/2 cents per pound.

Mr. David Curtis has bought about 700 hogs which he will ship in a few days.

Capt. R. F. Oatts, of Monticello, has been on a visit to our village since Saturday. He is looking well, and is quite popular in this vicinity.

We made a flying visit to Stanford on Saturday, and were more favorably impressed than ever with the sociability of your citizens. [Why didn't you let us see something of you.—Ed.]

Mr. Wm. Watkins, of whom we wrote last week is slowly recovering from an obdurate attack of Typhoid Fever. Mary T. Pond, step-daughter of Wm. Casey's, is quite low of the same disease.

Prof. Elliott's school will close its present session on Friday week.

Elder Milton Elliott will preach at the Church here, Saturday and Sunday next.

MARRIED in this county, on the 5th inst., Mr. W. H. Smith to Miss Anna Delany.

MARRIED in Milledgeville, yesterday, Mr. Benj. F. Ferrell to Miss Eva Jane Tatter.

ALL remember that Anderson & McRoberts make the best Soda Water for 5 cents a glass ever made in Stanford.

OUR attentive and agreeable Crab Orchard correspondent, Mr. W. B. James, was in town Monday, and favored us with a call.

OUR man Smith (and we may also say Dick Warren's Smith) is in jail in Louisville, for forgery and that "slender suit" against us is indefinitely postponed.

MR. M. N. DUNN, a clever young gentleman of Somerset, passed through town this week en route to the Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he will remain several weeks for the benefit of his health.

RUSSELL county is going to have a new Court House after the pattern of the one just built at Monticello. The contract for building it has just been awarded to a Nashville party at $10,943.

NEARLY a majority of the voters in this county are men who contribute nothing towards paying the expenses of the government. Our next Legislature should pass a law preventing any person from voting who has failed to pay his poll tax.

DELINQUENT LIST.—The Sheriff, on Monday, presented to the Court the list of delinquent tax payers for 1876. The total number returned is 1,265, of which 700 are whites and 565 negroes. The court, with the exception of fifty-three names, allowed the list.

DUNN'S SPEAK.—Ferdinand Fox Bottick, either because of a softening of his heart toward a long suffering public, or because he was doubtful of getting an audience, failed to deliver the promised speech on Court day. Faintness in the name of humanity, we thank you.

HON. BRYAN S. McCLELLAN, accompanied by Mr. J. B. Patterson, both of Russell county, paid us a pleasant call on Monday. Mr. McClellan has twice represented his county and Casey in the Legislature, and is one of the most popular and influential Democrats in that region. They both enrolled themselves in our noble army of subscribers.

NEW Improved Champion Light Mowing Machines at $85. Weaver & Evans, Agents.

We are greatly indebted to our efficient County Clerk, Mr. J. Blinn, for substantial favors.

STRAYED from W. F. Ramsey, a small scrub Roan Milk Cow. Any information will be thankfully received.

The petition of Mr. W. J. George for a license to retail ardent spirits at his hotel at McKinney's Station, was again refused by the Court on Monday.

Two Sewing Machines and six pairs of lacy hands have been required to do the work ordered at John H. Craig's Trade Palace the past and present month.

THE much needed rain came on Tuesday and yesterday, in gentle showers, producing a happy effect on all kinds of vegetation. Garden truck will now be abundant and cheap.

A. A. WARREN again enters the field with the best Machine made, the old and well known front end, Buckeye Reaper and Mower. Samples on hand at the P. O. Stanford, Ky.

MR. CALDWELL CAMPBELL, of Madison, has purchased and completed, for Mrs. Mary Logan and daughters, the handsome residence of Dr. A. F. Merriam. The price paid was $3,500. Possession is to be given on the 17th of this month.

ONE would think that by this time all the ladies had supplied themselves with bonnets, hats, dresses, &c., but judging from the large crowds that gather daily at John H. Craig's Trade Palace, we are convinced that the demand for those things is yet very great.

A NEW departure was made this season by that young merchant Prince, John H. Craig, when he brought to his temple of fashion, the Trade Palace, a fine line of cheap, beautiful and durable Summer dresses, which he has sold as low as any first class retail store in the cities.

CLOSED.—Rev. G. O. Barnes has closed his wonderful revival at Horseville. One hundred and twenty-five persons were lifted from darkness to light. A petition has been in circulation here, signed by a large number of our citizens asking Mr. Barnes to attempt a revival at this place, but we have not heard his decision.

BAPTIST CHURCH.—Rev. J. M. Bruce requests us to say that a church meeting will be held to-morrow (Saturday), at 10 o'clock, a. m., but on account of the Commencement sermon at the Court House he will hold no services at his Church on Sunday. He will, however, preach on the 2nd Sunday at 11 o'clock, a. m.

THIRD energetic and industrious artists, Miss Lucy Butterfield and Miss Belle Hughes, at John H. Craig's Trade Palace, have been compelled, owing to the great rush of business for the past six weeks to burn the midnight lamp, in order to keep up with the many orders from abroad and at home for dresses, hats, &c., sent to the establishment.

PERSONAL INTEREST.—Miss Maria Warwick, a lovely and interesting young lady of Washington, D. C., returned to her home last Tuesday, after a visit of several weeks in this vicinity. One young man at least, carries his heart in a sling since her departure. Mrs. John O. McCallister has been visiting at her father's (C. C. H. Rochester) this week.

MR. S. BAXTER ROBERT, the pleasant and clever Oil Company's Agent, is progressing with remarkable rapidity in leasing Oil lands. He has subagents in Lincoln, Rockcastle, Jackson, Owensley, Lee, Breathitt, Laurel, Clay and Casey, and the number of deeds they have taken is surprising. Active operations for boring for Oil will commence in a very short time and then the lessees will begin to see the wisdom of having leased their lands to this reliable Company.

THE Commencement Exercises of the Stanford College begin with the Annual Sermon on Sunday next, by the Rev. Daniel Young, of Nicholasville, a prominent Presbyterian divine. The services will be in the Court House, and as there will be no preaching at any of the churches here, in respect to the occasion, the congregation will no doubt be an unusually large one. On Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, the Annual Concert will be given and on Thursday evening, the regular Commencement Exercises will close the session of 1876-7.

NO HUSBAND.—The much abused and generally untrue assertion of merchants, that they are selling "goods at cost" has caused the public to have little faith in a notice to that effect. But when Mr. N. B. Tervis announced that it was his intention to do so until his large stock was sufficiently diminished, every body knew he was in earnest, and the crowds that flock to his establishment daily, prove that they are taking advantage of his liberal offer. Quite lower than the cloth can be bought to make them, Hatter lower than even shoes in this market, and Boots and Shoes, his well known specialty, at prices away below the bottom, are some of the inducements to buy from him now. He wise and take advantage of his unparalleled offer.

GOING TO TEXAS.—Prof. J. B. Myers will leave for Texas the latter part of this week, preparatory to locating permanently in that State, with the intention of either establishing a superior school or of taking charge of a good one already established. A distinguished graduate of the University of Virginia, and one of their long experience as a teacher, he ranks as one of the finest educators in the State, and his many patrons and friends will hear with regret his determination to leave, a step which is rendered necessary by his health requiring a warmer climate in winter. We congratulate the people of the "Lone Star State" on the acquisition of a gentleman so eminently qualified to instruct its rising generation and bespeak for him a kindly and substantial reception.

CAN'T BE BEAT.—Although the Messrs. Hayden Bros. have sold an immense amount of goods this season, their store still presents a full and handsome appearance. The reason of this is that they never allow themselves to run entirely out of any thing in their line, but by frequent and timely orders, keep always a full and complete stock, which, owing to their long experience in buying goods and the fact that they purchase them entirely for cash, they are enabled to sell at prices that can scarcely be duplicated in this market. Ladies' Dress Goods of every description; Ready-made Dresses, Scarfs, Handkerchiefs, Parasols, Fans, Gents' ready-made clothing and Furnishing Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats—but it is useless to enumerate the many articles they keep on hand, suffice it to say, they have nearly every thing you can call for. A visit to their store will convince you that this is strictly true and you can then see how low goods can be sold.

PROF. JULES DE LAUNY delivered two interesting and instructive lectures here on Sunday. Subject—The Catacombs of Rome.

LECTURE.—Rev. J. L. Burrows, D. D., one of the best preachers in the Baptist Church, lectured here last night on the "Evangelical of Richmond."

CASE PRESENTATION.—Colonel W. G. Welch has been presented by the people of Horseville, with a handsome case as a token of appreciation of his many efforts in the cause of Temperance. Miss Lizette Ayers was entrusted with its presentation, and on doing so made quite an elegant speech.
